CATALYST / TODAY'S DRIVER

Stock approaching 52W high zone at $95.05 on elevated volume, likely driven by sector rotation into Industrials and Materials as energy transition and infrastructure spending accelerate. Forward catalyst: November 5 earnings (86 days out) with potential to confirm margin expansion from recent cost-reduction initiatives and backlog conversion.

BREAKOUT SIGNAL

Close above $82.76 on vol >1.9x of 20d avg

EARNINGS

EARNINGS IN 86D

ANALYSIS

Base is too wide (3.04 ATR, well above the 2.0 VCP threshold), RS line not at new high (critical Qullamaggie leadership signal absent), below 50MA (intermediate trend not confirmed), and RS vs SPY is marginal at +2.2. Stock is in the breakout zone proximity-wise but lacks the coiled, institutional-quality setup characteristics. No insider buying in last 90 days removes a key conviction catalyst. Conviction: Low.
