ANALYSIS

CATALYST / TODAY'S DRIVER

No identifiable fundamental catalyst today - the 2.93% move on 0.91x average volume is below the pre-filter threshold for a genuine breakout. This appears to be routine low-conviction drift, possibly a sympathy lift with broader Technology sector leadership (+14.0% over 20d) rather than any stock-specific event.

BUSINESS & POSITION

Similarweb is a digital intelligence platform that provides web traffic analytics, competitive benchmarking, and audience insights to enterprise clients across marketing, sales, and investor intelligence use cases. The company competes against SemRush, Comscore, and internal data teams but holds a differentiated position in panel-based cross-platform measurement, though it remains a sub-scale player in a crowded market with limited pricing power.

FACTOR & THEME

Tangential exposure to the AI/data analytics theme insofar as enterprises are increasingly investing in competitive intelligence tooling, but SMWB has not articulated a credible AI-native product roadmap that commands a re-rating. Revenue growth of 10.9% is unimpressive relative to higher-quality SaaS peers; the secular tailwind is real but SMWB is not a primary beneficiary capturing outsized share.

BREAKOUT SIGNAL

No actionable signal - stock has not reclaimed the $3.54 pivot; a close above $3.54 on volume >1.5x the 20-day average would be the minimum entry gate, but even that would leave the stock 67% below its 52-week high with a broken RS line.

INSTITUTIONAL

Institutional ownership is reported at 62.5% across 109 institutions, which is a reasonable base for a $280M market cap company but not indicative of concentrated high-conviction growth fund sponsorship. No A/D rating data available from this feed - recommend cross-referencing IBD or O'Neil data for accumulation/distribution context. Critically, there is zero insider buying in the last 90 days and zero insider buying over the full trailing 12 months - no insider conviction signal whatsoever. Short interest is negligible at 0.5% of float with a 0.5 days-to-cover ratio, eliminating any short squeeze dynamic.

EARNINGS CONTEXT

No earnings date is available from the live yfinance feed - do not infer a date from training data. Full-year consensus and beat history unavailable from this feed; at 10.9% revenue growth and a 1.0x P/S ratio the market is pricing minimal growth premium. Recommend cross-referencing Visible Alpha or Bloomberg for quarterly EPS/revenue consensus and beat/miss history before sizing any position.

KEY RISK

The stock sits 70.6% below its 52-week high of $10.75 with a deeply negative RS vs. SPY (-27.5) and no base formation (base_tight 3.43 is wide and volatile), meaning any position taken here is catching a falling knife in a downtrend with zero technical evidence of a trend reversal.

ANALYSIS

SMWB fails virtually every criterion for an institutional-quality breakout setup: volume is below average (0.91x, below the 1.5x pre-filter minimum), prox_52w is a deeply depressed 29.4 (breakout zone requires >85), RS vs. SPY is severely negative at -27.5 (stock is a sustained laggard, not a leader), RS line is not at a new high, the base is wide and loose (3.43 vs. the <2.0 target), and there is zero insider buying over any time horizon. In a Mixed/Transitional macro regime where even high-quality setups carry reduced conviction, this is a clear avoid - the stock is in a structural downtrend, not a breakout, and the 2.93% move is noise against a backdrop of severe technical deterioration.

Signal: No actionable signal - stock has not reclaimed the $3.5

Volume / Tape Synthesis

- A/D Verdict: C-rated tape (neutral). Buying and selling pressure roughly balanced - wait for a regime change before sizing up.
- Vol Footprint: Last 90d: 2 absorption, 4 distribution day(s) at >2x average volume. Net bearish - distribution outpacing accumulation.
